ACR Accreditation Statement
This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the essential areas and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the American College of Radiology and RAD-AID. The American College of Radiology is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education to physicians.

MD Credit Designation Statement
The American College of Radiology is evaluating credits to be awarded for this event. Last year, the ACR awarded up to 7.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™ for the full event. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Technologists
The American College of Radiology is approved by the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT) as a Recognized Continuing Education Evaluation Mechanism (RCEEM) to sponsor and/or review Continuing Medical Educational programs for Radiologic Technologists and Radiation Therapists. The American College of Radiology is determining eligible credits for this event. Last year, ACR designated this educational activity as meeting the criteria for up to 7.75 Category A credit hours of the ARRT.

Nursing
Nursing credit is currently under review. Last year, this continuing nursing education activity was approved for 7.25 contact hours by the Virginia Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation.
Sonography Accreditation Statement

This education activity is undergoing review for credit approval. Last year, this event was approved by the Society of Diagnostic Medical Sonography (SDMS) for 8 credit hours.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR RECEIVING CME CREDITS:

Participants in RAD-AID Conference seeking CME (Physicians, Nurses, Technologists and Sonographers) will be receiving the credits via email. You will receive an email asking you to verify your credits. If you have would like to receive the credit verification email at a different email address than the one you entered for conference registration, then please email Christopher Chornay at conference@rad-aid.org.
